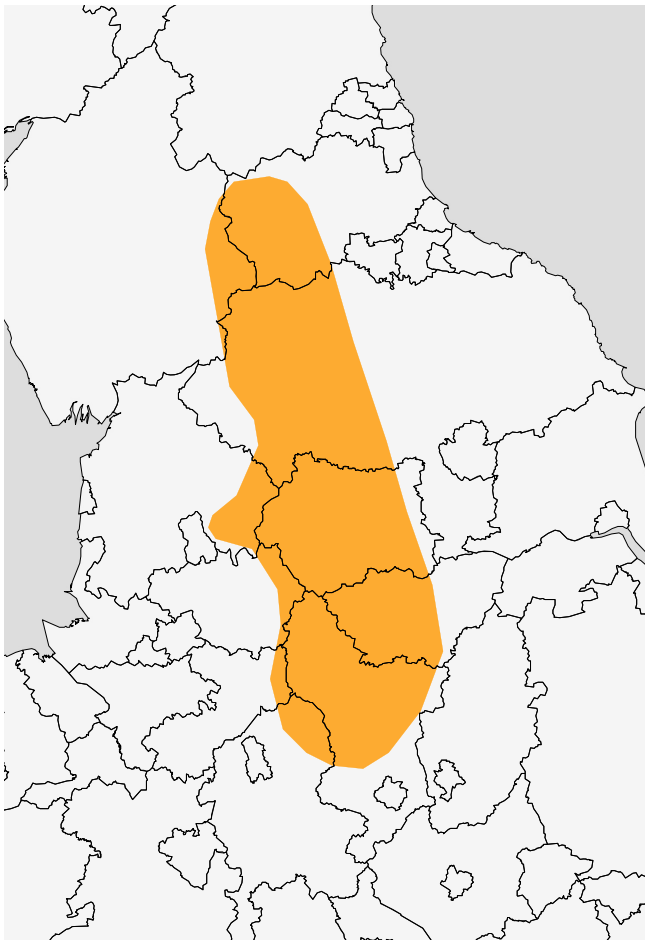
Amber warning
Snow

Between
15:00 Thu 9 Mar 2023 and
12:00 Fri 10 Mar 2023



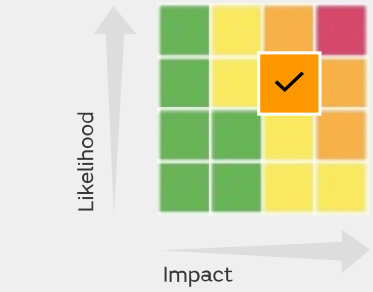
Heavy snow is likely to cause significant disruption on Thursday afternoon and Friday morning

What to expect

- Travel delays on roads, stranding some vehicles and passengers
- Some delays and cancellations to rail and air travel are likely
- There is a good chance that some rural communities could become cut off
- Power cuts are likely and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected

Further details

Snow is expected to develop over northern England on Thursday morning, becoming persistent through the afternoon and overnight into early Friday morning before slowly easing. Residual impacts from snowfall are expected to persist through Friday morning. 10-20 cm of snow is expected to fall quite widely, with some places seeing 30-40 cm. Strong easterly winds are expected to accompany this snow, leading to blizzards and drifting of lying snow.



Medium likelihood of medium impacts
